65 Sutherland Ave, Hayborough

1970's Solid Brick | Investment Opportunity

Built in 1974 this beautiful solid cream brick original home has been dearly loved, cared for and maintained by the original owners. This is the first time this property has ever been offered to market in nearly 50 years, although the kitchen and bathroom are in original condition, they are very well maintained and certainly adds character to this retro design. If you love gardening and listening to the native birds, this property is paradise, every plant and flower bed has been lovingly planted to create the most beautiful country cottage garden, with the ocean as its backdrop.

In a prime location, centrally located in Hayborough just 700m to the beaches and a short stroll over to the shopping facilities of Coles and Bunnings.

A 5-minute drive into Port Elliot or Victor Harbor and just 1 hour and 30 minutes to Adelaide. As this property will appeal to a number of different buyers, whether it be a First-time home buyer, Investor or to someone wanting a holiday home why not think about making this your next move?
